Alma Mater

Hail, Alma Mater!
Hats off to you.
Ever you'll find us
Loyal and true.

Firm and undaunted
Always we'll be.
Hail to the school we love.
Here's a toast to thee!

Hail alma mater . . .

Because of their loyalty and service to our alma mater, the 1962 Montala is proudly dedicated to the coaches, Mr. Theron Fisher, Mr. Cratie Corbett, and Mr. Charles Martin.

DEDICATION

Montala Staff

1962

DIRECTOR

V. T. Young

Langley Tolbert, Becky Hicks, Carolyn Kyser, Judy Lucas, Bonnie Mims, Charlotte Higgins, Jackie Blakely, and head majorette Lucretia Hollingsworth line up for a picture in front of the new band room.

The Junior Band is made up of seventh grade students. Members shown are Peggy Sue Hurt, Lucile Lovelady, Linda Byrd, Ronnie Shoemaker, Milton Emfinger, Bruce Fraser, Clay Nordan, Judy Brantley, Pam Pickett, Marilyn McGee, Lynn Frost, Debbie Vining, Beverly Harper, Mary Ann Parker, Joe Meyer, Mary Robinson, Ann Fagan, Stanley Bailey, Alvin Boothe, Terry Carter, Peggy Whaley, and Margie Scott.

CHEERLEADER ACTIVITIES

The MHS Spirit flew undaunted through another year and the defiant Bulldog cry heralded many a MHS victory.

The cheerleaders who played a vital role in supporting and directing the school spirit throughout the year were Doris Jones, head; Amy Orr, Julia Hayes, Marilyn Kyser, and Judy Poole.

Practice comes right after the school year ends. One of the highlights for the cheerleaders was the Mid-South Cheerleader Institute held at the University of Mississippi. Here two first-place and one second-place ribbons were given to them for their cheering ability.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization consisting of two representatives from each homeroom in grades 9-12 with the exception of the Senior Class which has three. Representatives are chosen by popular vote of each section and officers are elected by the entire student body.

Officers seated in the front row of the above picture are Rick Frost, President; Ed Kyser, Vice-President; Langley Tolbert, Secretary; Jackie Blakely, Treasurer; Albert Scott, Parliamentarian; and Charles Warnke, Chaplain. Others members are Marilyn Kyser, Sandra Scott, Charles McGehee, Carolyn Kyser, Guy Milford, Ricky Zucco, Judy Lucas, Jerrie Crawford, Nina Hollingsworth, Ellen Erwin, Emily Stancil, Larry McGaughy, Herby Milstead, Freddie Williams, Jerry Smitherman, Mike Garrett, Lee Barclay, Kathy Bowden, Norfleete Day, William Glosson, and Jack Hughes.

Each year the Student Council sponsors homecoming and the Community Chest Drive. It also maintains a supply store which operates during the ten minute break each day. Mr. B. W. Hamric is Student Council sponsor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Going through the files are Charles Warnke, Shirley Tingle, Jackie Blakely, and Rick Frost.

Members of the National Honor Society have gained admittance because of their outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and service. Acting in a service capacity of the school, the Montevallo chapter maintains a scholarship file and bulletin board, provides baby sitters for parents during P.T.A. meetings, and edits the school yearbook. Shown above looking over scholarship posters are Freddie Williams, Martha Whaley, President, Albert Scott, and Secretary John Lankford. Pictured below taking time out to check program material are Linnie Bannon, Nancy Hicks, Nancy Hall, and Annette Potts. Member not pictured is Vice President Johnny McNeel.

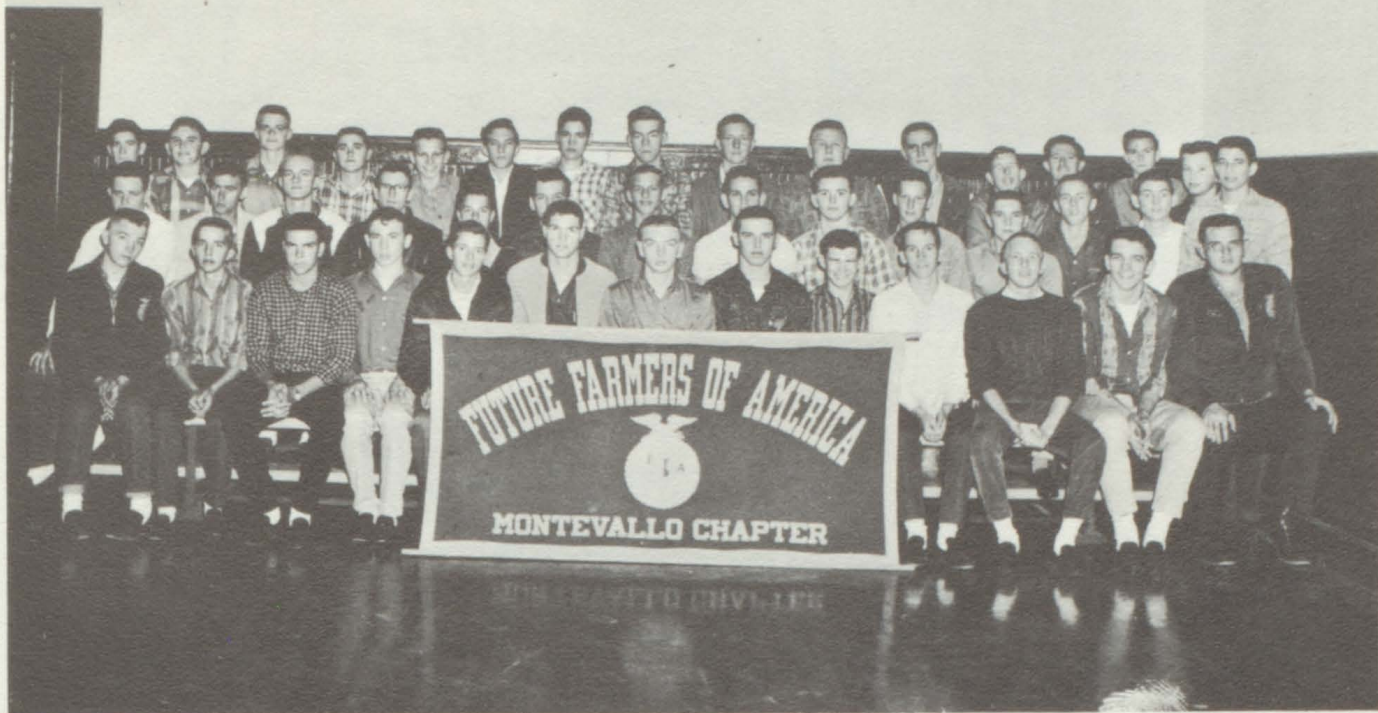

The F.H.A. is composed of approximately 80 girls who have completed at least one year of home economics. Annual projects include Hobo Day, a trip to the Alabama State Fair, Cookbook sales, and a chicken fry during F.H.A.-F.F.A. Week. Sponsors of the group are Mrs. Rebecca McGaughy and Mrs. Margaret Hollingsworth.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

F.H.A. officers surrounding the emblem are Langley Tolbert, president; Ann Bashore, Alma Adams, vice presidents; Amy Orr, secretary; Jane Robinson, treasurer; Marilyn Kyser, Student Council representative; Gail Price, parliamentarian; Judy Poole, reporter; Lois Eady, Carolyn Kyser, recreation leaders; and Delilah Smith, Dale Youngblood, historians.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

GREENHAND OFFICERS: Terry Snow, president; James Lumpkin, vice president; Ray Edwards, secretary; Wayne Davis, reporter; Rondal Anderson, treasurer; Larry Pickett, sentinel; Wallis Harrison, assistant adviser; Kenny Burdett, parliamentarian.

Bi-weekly SPOTLIGHT culminates from several weeks of intense and varied activities. Critique of each issue reveals strengths and weaknesses; and upon this criteria a new issue is begun.

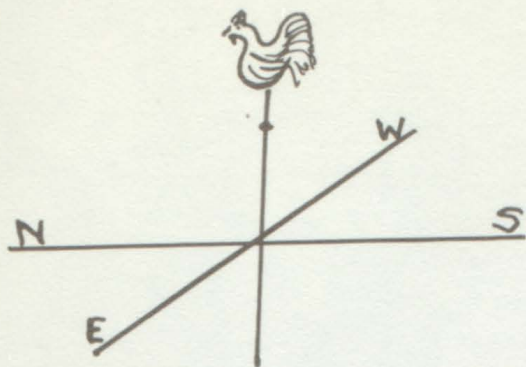

Miss Susie DeMent and sports editors plan picture layout.

Junior page coordinator Linnie Bannon helps Gloria Fotchmann, Betty Jean Shinn, and Margie Scott rewrite news from seventh and eighth grades.

Doris Jones, typing stencil, follows layout suggested by Jackie Blakely. Patti Sue Galloway draws illustrations on the Mimeoscope.

Stencils must be proofread four times each to correct every error.

Nancy Hicks, Exchange Editor, supervises the covering, labeling, and stamping of mailouts and exchanges for other high schools.

The classroom assembly line staples, stacks, and tallies subscribers' names for distribution.

Linnie Bannon and Junior Staffers Paula Allen, Sandra Allbright, Rhonda Davis, Linda Harrison, Bobby Brown, Kathy Sherrod, and Philip Hubbard appraise their efforts.

Leslie Hubbard supervises the actual process of duplicating each stencil while Doris Jones and George Underwood lend assistance.

News Editor Martha Whaley and Editors Sharon Woolley and Leslie Hubbard "Polish up the Brass" received for Alabama High School Press Association "First Place Winner" and National Scholastic Press Association "All American."

HOMECOMING 1961

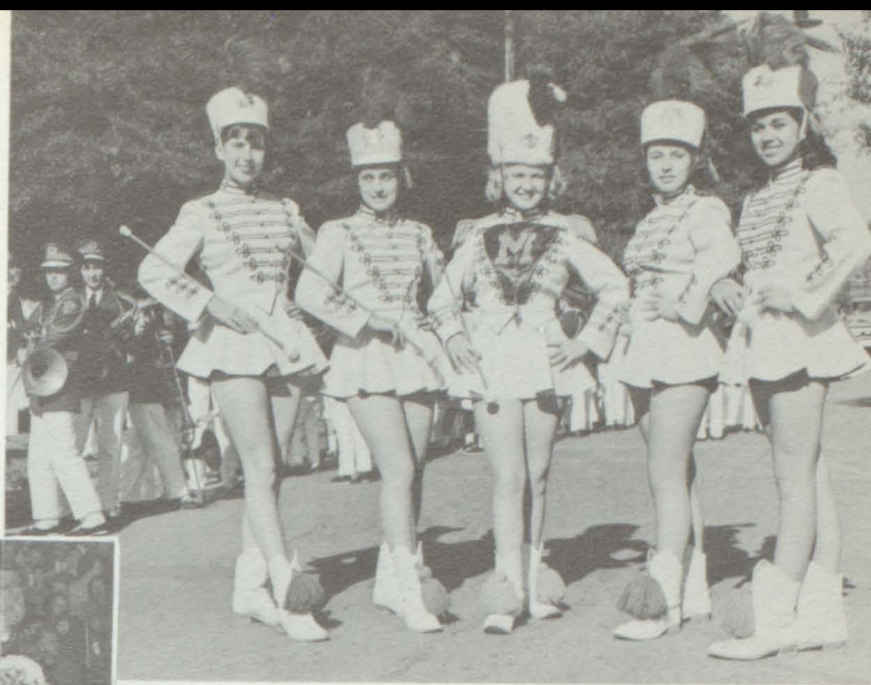

Homecoming, sponsored by the Student Council, is one of the biggest events at M.H.S. This year, festivities began with a pep rally Thursday night on the football field. Featured at the rally were the football team, cheerleaders, band, majorettes, and speaker—Mr. Robert Couch.

On Friday, the day of Homecoming, classes and clubs decorated floats and cars for the parade using the theme—"M.H.S.—Cradle of Confederacy; Climb Over Calera." The queen and her court, which are elected by the student body, were presented in the parade and again that night before the football game. The M.H.S. Bulldogs did "Climb Over Calera" with a rousing 34-0 victory. Afterwards the Alumni were entertained at a reception given by the senior class and attended the traditional Homecoming dance. The climax of the evening came with the presentation of the queen's court—Becky Hicks, Delilah Smith, Langley Tolbert, and Cheryl Blackmon — and the crowning of Jackie Blakely as 1961 Homecoming Queen.

Rick Frost, Student Council president, finds his assistance is needed as Queen Jackie gets ready for her royal role.

Majorettes Higgins, Kyser, Hollingsworth, Mims, and Lucas pose before the big Friday afternoon parade.

The Queen and her attendants are presented at pre-game festivities.

Having a featured spot in the parade and getting a "free ride and rest" before the downtown pep rally are cheerleaders Kyser, Poole, Jones, Orr, and Hayes.

Climaxing two days of Homecoming activities, '61 Queen Lola Daviston Campbell places the crown on Queen Jackie's head.

10 SENIORS HELP AS . . .

BULLDOGS SCORE 9-1

OPENER IS EASY WIN

Montevallo's high-gearred offense, which exploded for 256 points in 1961, blasted off to a quick start as George Underwood wriggled 69 yards to paydirt on the first play from scrimmage in the initial win over Isabella, 54-0. After that the Bulldogs made scoring look easy in their 17th straight victory.

Butch Kyser blocked a punt, and Bobby Hyde raced 15 yards for a TD. John Starks went in from the five. Lee Barclay scored from the nine. Charles Warnke crossed the payoff stripe twice—once from the five and again from the 39, and Underwood scored two more.

WARRIORS FALL FIFTH TIME

Montevallo traveled to Thompson for the second contest; and, when the battle was done, the cry of the Bulldogs' traditional foe was once again, "Wait 'til next year." The Bulldogs won 19-0.

Freddie Williams displayed his pass-interception talents, and Jerry Smitherman acquainted fans with the line's speed as he caught Johnny Busby from behind when the Warrior back was well on his way for a TD. Underwood ran over all three Bulldog scores.

CLANTON STOPPED COLD

A staunch MHS defense held Clanton to nine yards on the ground as the Bulldogs took victory No. 19, 13-0. Underwood scored both touchdowns.

Kyser blocked a punt to set up the first TD, and two passes which Underwood threw to Warnke and Albert Scott paved the way for the second one.

Jerry Smitherman, making his debut as kicker for the PAT, scored one for two.

BULLDOGS PLAY "TOUCH AND GO"

Jemison's Mustangs got no closer than 44 yards as Montevallo's stingy defense, headed by Jerry and Wayne Smitherman, held firm for a 39-0 victory.

The Bulldogs scored in every quarter: First—Starks (6 yds.); Second—Underwood (3 yds.); Third—Warnke (41 yds.); Underwood to Williams (79 yds.); and Fourth—Underwood (1 yd.).

This game gave Underwood Post Herald's Prep Player of the Week Award.

VERBENA IS 44-6 VICTIM

A surprise Statue of Liberty play set F. R. Jones of Verbena scampering 60 yards to score the first touchdown of the season against the Bulldogs as Montevallo defeated the Red Devils 44-6.

RECORD IN 1961

This was Warnke's night. The big halfback tucked away two Verbena passes, besides scoring one touchdown from 10 yards out and galloping 67 yards for a second one.

Other touchdown getters were Underwood (3), Bobby Hyde, and Mickey Henson.

SHELBY SCARES BUT FALLS SHORT

Shelby County drew first blood, but the sight of it triggered the Bulldogs to a 13-10 victory Oct. 13. Warnke scored both MHS touchdowns.

After Kenny Skelton's field goal put Shelby ahead, the Bulldogs drove 87 yards to score, then forced the Wildcats to punt and executed a 65-yard drive for a second touchdown.

Ot Weaver took a Bulldog kick and raced 85 yards to set up Hank Spires' touchdown for Shelby from the two.

BULLDOGS SHOW OFF FOR ALUMNI

Capitalizing on their sharp forward wall, Montevallo's backs had a field day against Calera as they scored in every quarter for a 34-0 homecoming romp.

Underwood made three touchdowns (40 yards, 22 yards, and 27 yards on a pass from Williams). Warnke had a 64-yard touchdown run, and Williams a two-yard quarterback sneak for a TD.

MHS HOLDS STATE'S LONGEST STRING

Montevallo extended its win streak (longest in the state at the time) to 24 with a 14-7 conquest of the Cordova Blue Devils.

At Cordova, four passes helped spell victory. Three which Lloyd Tharpe received from Underwood added 39 yards, and one from Underwood to A. Scott was good for a touchdown. Starks went over from the two for Montevallo's second score. Smitherman kicked two for two to add the extra points.

Jimmy Kendrick ran 46 yards in the third quarter for Cordova's touchdown.

LACKEY LOWERS THE BOOM

Led by Larry Lackey, B. B. Comer snapped Montevallo's 24-game win streak, 12-0.

A stalwart Bulldog defense, headed by the Smithermans, Kyser, and Hyde, held the victors behind their own 40-yard line throughout the first half; but Lackey would not be contained after intermission.

BULLDOGS SIGN OFF WITH 26-0 WIN

Ten seniors ended their high school grid careers in winning fashion as they captained the Bulldogs in a 26-0 romp over Vincent.

Underwood ran his year's total to twenty touchdowns as he scored three times. Williams completed three of seven passes—one was a 20-yard heave to Tharpe for a TD.

RICK FROST—Scrappy 6'1" forward. Rick is one of those good all-around athletes. He was at his best in basketball on crisp shots and rebounding.

JOHN LANKFORD—Center and tallest man on the squad at 6'6". This faithful, hard-working senior has a real love for the game.

JOHNNY McNEEL—Forward. A good shot from any place or position. Mack is a fine man to have around "just in case."

ED MOORE—2 years. Center, forward. "Big Red" led the team in scoring and rebounding. He uses his height to a good advantage on jump shots along the base line.

ALBERT SCOTT—2 years. Cool, unexcitable. Though small in stature, as a team man, sport, and all-around athlete, Albert is tops.
